

Matt Ross

Quotes

Thinking, People, Acting, Fun, Trying, Kids, Connotation, Kissing, Effort, Growing Up, Versions, Incredibles, Running, Sound, Style, Hero, Soul, Guitar, Culture, Real

I think my ultimate directorial style is 'play.' In reference to theater, it's called a play - I believe in that noun, and the verb that goes with it.

~Matt Ross

A lot of acting requires you to be a charming version of yourself.

~Matt Ross

If everyone thinks you're bizarre and creepy, then you play bad guys. If everyone thinks you're beautiful and wants to kiss you, then you play the lead role.

~Matt Ross

When you listen to someone's songs, their soul comes through.

~Matt Ross

I played guitar when I was a kid, a little bit. I can tool around with a guitar, but I'm certainly not a musician.

~Matt Ross

The challenge and love, for me, of acting is if you get to transform or do something you haven't done before. That's fun.

~Matt Ross

I can sing, but it takes an incredible amount of work for me to sound acceptable.

~Matt Ross

One of the things that's fun about that is that sometimes you grow up knowing about someone because they were famous, but you don't really know what they were like before they were famous.

~Matt Ross

When people talk about careers, I always feel like the connotation of a career is that you're actually choosing things.

~Matt Ross

One of the fun things for me, about acting, is trying to transform. Transformational acting was the reason why I became an actor, in the first place.

~Matt Ross

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- People Quotes
- Acting Quotes
- Fun Quotes
- Trying Quotes
- Kids Quotes
- Connotation Quotes
- Kissing Quotes
- Effort Quotes
- Growing Up Quotes
- Versions Quotes
- Incredibles Quotes
- Running Quotes
- Sound Quotes
- Style Quotes
- Hero Quotes
- Soul Quotes
- Guitar Quotes
- Culture Quotes
- Real Quotes