As the saying goes, type is a beautiful group of letters, not a group of beautiful letters.

~Matthew Carter

Make sure you are passionate about the vision.

~Matthew Carter

Many of us struggle with ideas that come to our head from our self-identification.

~Matthew Carter

I am an eternally curious person, but I wouldn't go to such lengths to know what it is like to be someone else.

~Matthew Carter

I don't particularly like the word average because when it comes down to it there is no average in people. Everybody has their own streak of uniqueness within them.

~Matthew Carter

Let's be pastors who cast vision that are worth people giving their life for.

~Matthew Carter

There's all kind of vision in this Book. Just open it up and your people will follow.

~Matthew Carter

I love the arts, and enjoy going to the art museum whenever I get a chance.

~Matthew Carter

I've always been introverted and so from a very young age I would play different scenarios in my head and let my imagination run free.

~Matthew Carter

The last thing I want to do is pastor a church Jesus ain't at.

~Matthew Carter

When your vision is a biblical vision, the people arguing with it are not arguing with you. They are arguing with God.

~Matthew Carter

Throughout my life I had wandered alone, trying to find pieces of me in any place I could and when it came down to it, I was nothing but a shell of missed opportunities.

~Matthew Carter

Make sure your vision is God's vision.

~Matthew Carter

I have always been curious about other people. I wonder what goes on in their minds, whether they are good, or bad and I wonder about their lives.

~Matthew Carter

If God doesn't build the vision, He will tear it down.

~Matthew Carter

Cast first to your church those visions you absolutely know are the Lord's.

~Matthew Carter

"Good" people are those who don't hold in the thoughts, but find proper outlets like writing, painting, music, etc.

~Matthew Carter

Everybody has secrets and some are deeper and darker than others. I think if we peered within the psyche of another we would be all of those things and so very much more.

~Matthew Carter

The first thing Jesus tells the church of Ephesus that He loves about them is they have sound doctrine.

~Matthew Carter

Make sure your vision is biblical. You want to make sure you can defend the vision biblically.

~Matthew Carter

Step 1 in casting vision is to make sure your people love Jesus more than they love the vision you are casting.
