We should all aspire in life to do a multitude of things well - to be a great father, to be a good husband, to be a good lover, you know, to try to do things the best you can is very important to me.

~Matthew Modine

Photography is about light and what it does and how it is captured on a piece of negative.

~Matthew Modine

I don't think that digital photography is romantic yet. It's not sympathetic the way that film is.

~Matthew Modine

Stanley didn't shy away from true humanity or from the ugliness that all people are capable of.

~Matthew Modine

It was the baseball fantasy of a lifetime - to be able to sit on the bench with all those professional athletes. I got to take my son along because I wasn't sure I would be able to play with them.

~Matthew Modine

My father taught me to paint when I was young with watercolors and so I learned at a very young age the essential elements of the value of light and composition.

~Matthew Modine

The experience of using a Rolleiflex camera is very different than using a SLR.

~Matthew Modine

I played Little League and in high school. I played more over the years whenever there was a pick-up game... usually softball.

~Matthew Modine

You hope and pray that you'll get involved with a director that you understand and who has the same sensibility as you do and knows how to push you and bring out the best in you.

~Matthew Modine

They don't have the news media set up in Africa that we do in the United States, where televisions are so accessible and newspapers and magazines are able to educate people.

~Matthew Modine

I've worked with Robert Altman a couple of times too.

~Matthew Modine

Think of Frank Capra and Preston Sturges. They used the same actors over and over again.

~Matthew Modine

Life really is very brief.

~Matthew Modine

I never set out to be rich and famous. I wanted to follow my own path.

~Matthew Modine

Fifteen dollar too beaucoup. Five dollars each... Five dollars is all my mom allows me to spend.

~Matthew Modine

Everything is so convenient in New York.

~Matthew Modine

I always thought that it was kind of silly that a baseball card could be worth so much money.

~Matthew Modine

There's a discipline. When you take someone's portrait, you don't have to take 50 photographs, just find that one so that when you release the shutter, that's the image that you took.

~Matthew Modine

So the thing that's beautiful about the Rolleiflex is that I open the camera up from the top and put my face in and that the camera's all about composition and all about light.
