I had no allusions of radio success. I just loved being in studios. I was having fun and in that sense I now feel a lot like I did when I did that record.

~Matthew Sweet

The summer of 2002 at the Wilson birthday party I met Van Dyke again and I made plans to have dinner with him.

~Matthew Sweet

I went to a rare live Van Dyke show and met him there. And then he came to a show of mine and we spoke back stage. The third time was at Brian Wilson's birthday party.

~Matthew Sweet

When I go to Japan and do shows I play for 1,000 to 1,500 people. I like a lot about Japan. Their popular culture and mass commercialization appeals to me.

~Matthew Sweet

I figured if the plane goes down, I'll go with a great genius and will always have my name connected with his.

~Matthew Sweet

There are things that I value now that I didn't when I first went over there, like Zen Buddhism, which has become part of my life over the last couple years.

~Matthew Sweet

It became a question of do I want to be on a label where it could take three years to put out a record instead of putting out three records over the same period of time on my own.

~Matthew Sweet

I only felt a cold wind blow while I tried to hang on to the past.

~Matthew Sweet

Wavering and burning like a golden lie.

~Matthew Sweet

In a world that's ugly and a lie, it's hard to even want to try.

~Matthew Sweet

It wasn't so much that I had to leave to make it in the music business as I was curious to be out on my own and sort of explore. I never felt that where I was ever influenced my songwriting.

~Matthew Sweet

You're laughing at everything that's bringing me down.

~Matthew Sweet

They're not your words, but you're reciting the lines.

~Matthew Sweet

I believe in nature instead of God.

~Matthew Sweet

I'm not in for killing another man, defending my holy land, as if there's a god who would understand.
