I'm just not one of these guys who, like, you know, woke up with a six-pack. I need Skittles. I have to eat very particularly and I have to work out like a madman. And then it looks like... okay.

~Max Greenfield

There's nothing worse than walking around and talking about your failed relationship, all day, every day, for months on end.

~Max Greenfield

I think L.A. gets a bad rap. L.A. is the same as everywhere else.

~Max Greenfield

Pilots are so hard because you have to introduce all these characters, you have to hook an audience, and an audience has such a smaller attention span than maybe they used to have.

~Max Greenfield

In my latter years I've decided that there's too much to keep track of when you go into the lying game. That becomes stressful and it's not for me anymore.

~Max Greenfield

If you knew my wife, you'd be like, "Yeah, you're very married." She runs the household. I refer to her as "the greatest director I've ever worked with."

~Max Greenfield

There is nothing worse than bad drunk acting.

~Max Greenfield

For a girl, the wedding is when you're married. For a guy, it's when you get engaged. It takes a real aggressive human being to back out between the ring and the wedding.

~Max Greenfield

When I'm in the car sometimes it's like, 'Yeah, man, just put on the pop music.' You know what I mean? I don't want to listen to Tom Waits.

~Max Greenfield

I'm Jewish and my wife isn't so right now we're literally decorating a Christmas tree with Jewish stars draped around it.

~Max Greenfield

Another show I really enjoyed working on was Raising The Bar. I did four or five episodes of that show.

~Max Greenfield

George Wendt is a saint. And one of the finest American actors that we have.

~Max Greenfield

I just never want to be in this situation where I get to set and they're like, "We rewrote this scene, you're now naked." I need a little prep work.

~Max Greenfield

I love Twitter. My favorite thing to do these days is to Tweet things that seem very questionable as to whether I'm joking or not.
