I always loved music, but it's not something I thought I was gonna approach on a professional level.

~Meital Dohan

The new film I'm shooting in Jerusalem - which is partly why I'm here in Israel - is something I co-wrote.

~Meital Dohan

I don't really consider myself a writer, but I am writing so I guess I'm a writer.

~Meital Dohan

I treat both acting and writing as a creation - writing is just another element or aspect of it.

~Meital Dohan

I believe life is destiny, and really the capture the magic of life, and the same for the magic in the disaster.

~Meital Dohan

It's always nice to meet friends of friends.

~Meital Dohan

I like to take on a different role every time or else I make myself bored.

~Meital Dohan

I like to do projects that are off-the-wall and on top-of-the-wall.

~Meital Dohan

Human life is just dangerous, in general. You know, waking up in the morning, you could get hit by a car. Wherever you go, you could choke on a fish bone and die. You never know.

~Meital Dohan

I also love a film by Ang Lee - "Lust, Caution."

~Meital Dohan

I kind of feel connected to all places at the moment, and I've done very interesting projects in both places (Israel and America).

~Meital Dohan

However, obviously Israel is a much smaller place in terms of population. There are only 6 million people in Israel, where there might be 6 million people in one city in America.

~Meital Dohan

In America, everything is big and more like a jungle.

~Meital Dohan

I really love Phillip Seymour Hoffman and Edward Norton. I also like Ryan Gosling and Rick Bentley. And of the girls I like Naomi Watts and Juliette Binoche, and I would like to work with...

~Meital Dohan

I'm very picky and I'm very critical.

~Meital Dohan

I also like Juliette Lewis - I think she's great.

~Meital Dohan

I like "Talk to Her" by [Pedro] Almodovar and "Happiness" by Todd Solondz, "Mullholland Drive" by David Lynch .

~Meital Dohan

I'm connected to both places because I already feel like New York is my home. But then again I feel like L.A. is my new home and Israel is my real home.

~Meital Dohan

While I'm acting I'm focused on what I'm trying to say through the character. And when I'm writing, I'm just putting down on paper or on the computer what I have to say.

~Meital Dohan

Israel is not dangerous on one hand, but on the other hand it is dangerous. Human life is just dangerous, in general.

~Meital Dohan

Theater in Israel is not more dangerous than walking in the street.

~Meital Dohan

It's the modern world, so it's pretty much the same. Everyone follows America, from all over the world.
