I get it now; I didn't get it then. That life is about losing and about doing it as gracefully as possible... and enjoying everything in between.

~Mia Farrow

I'm going to take the high road because the low road is so crowded.

~Mia Farrow

Don't get involved with anyone who doesn't respect his mother.

~Mia Farrow

Life is about losing, everything, gracefully

~Mia Farrow

Find things that shine and move toward them.

~Mia Farrow

I learned that you can't truly own anything, that true ownership comes only in the moment of giving.

~Mia Farrow

A person without regrets is a nincompoop.

~Mia Farrow

Life is about losing everything, gracefully.

~Mia Farrow

I found real fulfillment through my children and through adopting special needs kids.

~Mia Farrow

It is by that which cannot be taken away that we can measure ourselves.

~Mia Farrow

I want a big career, a big man, and a big life. You have to think big - that's the only way to get it... I just couldn't stand being anonymous.

~Mia Farrow

I took a long period off to be a mom.

~Mia Farrow

I don't think you can be a Catholic without an accompanying measure of guilt.

~Mia Farrow

If I weren't doing what I'm doing now, the actress thing, the star business, if you want to call it that, whatever it is, I'd be in an asylum. I'm sure of it.

~Mia Farrow

My father always told me I should be a writer, and I found I loved writing my autobiography; writing is such an interesting process.

~Mia Farrow

I have the most wonderful children. I've been very, very blessed.
