We strive for error-free medicine in a world that is sometimes all too human.

~Michael C. Burgess

In a system where the cost of care is hidden by taxes levied on your income, property, and business activities, it is no wonder why so many Americans rely on Medicaid to pay their long term care.

~Michael C. Burgess

Nuclear power will help provide the electricity that our growing economy needs without increasing emissions. This is truly an environmentally responsible source of energy.

~Michael C. Burgess

Nuclear power is an important part of our domestic fuel mix.

~Michael C. Burgess

Especially today, given the tight fiscal situation that many States and localities face, the use of transportation facilities that pay for themselves without additional Federal funding is essential.

~Michael C. Burgess

The Leadership Training Institute of America is a cultural think tank providing training and opportunity in leadership development and cultural dynamics.

~Michael C. Burgess

As a Republican, I am all for competition.

~Michael C. Burgess

We saw in 2003 the beginnings of an outbreak of an illness called SARS. SARS ended up killing 800 people which is a significant number of deaths, but nowhere near as high as it could have been.

~Michael C. Burgess

No one can truly be prepared for such devastation and pure malevolence, but the United Kingdom can always look to the United States as an ally resolved to stand firm in the war on terrorism.

~Michael C. Burgess

And, finally, as a Republican, I believe it is important to keep our word and keep our covenant, and that is exactly what we should do with the Wright amendment today.

~Michael C. Burgess

On January 1, 2006, Medicare will begin to offer a prescription drug benefit, and for the first time, it will place an emphasis on preventive care and early treatment of disease.

~Michael C. Burgess

Well, I have also believed in empowering the individual and believe there is a degree of inertia in big government that hampers the ability to respond to a rapidly evolving crisis.

~Michael C. Burgess

When Medicare was first enacted in 1965, it provided coverage for hospitalization, doctor visits and surgeries, but there was no coverage for prescription medications.

~Michael C. Burgess

Nuclear power is here to stay, and we need to support a strong domestic uranium industry.

~Michael C. Burgess

~Michael C. Burgess

Today, nuclear power provides 20 percent of power in the United States.

~Michael C. Burgess

There are no bona fide treatments available for embryonic stem cells. There is nothing in the laboratory, and there is certainly nothing in the clinics available to patients.

~Michael C. Burgess

Our Nation is in great need of young men and women of character to lead in every arena of our society.

~Michael C. Burgess

I believe that States should be credited for their non-Federal investment in revenue-generating transportation facilities to address their regional transportation needs.

~Michael C. Burgess

Many people live alone and like it, but most of them live alone and look at it.

~Michael C. Burgess

The fact remains that most of us are anesthetized to the true cost and true value of long term care insurance.

~Michael C. Burgess

Most Americans have some experience with nursing homes or other long term care settings, and nearly half have had a family member or close friend in a home in the past three years.
