Be proud to be a decent American rather than a wanker whipping up fear.

~Michael D. Higgins

I love our shared island, our shared Ireland and its core decency. I love it for its imagination and its celebration of the endless possibilities for our people.

~Michael D. Higgins

Every age, after all, must have its own aisling and dream of a better, kinder, happier, shared world.

~Michael D. Higgins

We need to discuss the basis of a new form of trust built on a meaningful form of citizenship appropriate for a republic.

~Michael D. Higgins

When I started out, people were afraid of parish priests. Now they're afraid of newspaper editors.

~Michael D. Higgins

I think even the poorest people in the great country that is the United States should be entitled to basic health care.

~Michael D. Higgins

I am delighted to be back home in Galway, the place I first came to as a 19-year-old in 1960. It's here where my heart is and will forever be.

~Michael D. Higgins

I am delighted with the strong vote I have received. My message of positive leadership, patriotism and commitment clearly was resonating with tens of thousands of ordinary Irish people.

~Michael D. Higgins

I want to say a very sincere thank you for this welcome home - it is a wonderful welcome home. It is the place to where I return and where I will always return because it is of Galway that I am.

~Michael D. Higgins
