Everything is as it was, I discover when I reach my destination, and everything has changed.

~Michael Frayn

I can understand, he said, that many people, many perfectly ordinary people, have an interesting story to tell. No one's experience of life is valueless.

~Michael Frayn

You can create a good impression on yourself by being right . . . but for creating a good impression on others there's nothing to beat being totally and catastrophically wrong.

~Michael Frayn

We have one set of obligations to the world in general, and we have other sets never to be reconciled to our fellow-countrymen, to our neighbors, to our friends, to our family, to our children.

~Michael Frayn

You just have to work with what God sends, and if God doesn't seem to understand the concept of commercial success than that's your bad luck.

~Michael Frayn

It's funny - there's nothing that stops you laughing like the sight of other people laughing about something else.

~Michael Frayn

No woman so naked as one you can see to be naked underneath her clothes.

~Michael Frayn

When anyone says they often think something, it means they've just thought of it now.

~Michael Frayn

To be absolutely honest, what I feel really bad about is that I don't feel worse. There's the ineffectual liberal's problem in a nutshell.

~Michael Frayn

If a lion could speak, it would not understand itself.

~Michael Frayn

I feel bad that I don't feel worse.
