The worst thing for a singer/songwriter is to run out of songs.

~Michael Kiwanuka

I love grooves and dance music, but I like the feeling behind songs too.

~Michael Kiwanuka

My idea of home is not necessarily a place.

~Michael Kiwanuka

I had a lovely time growing up.

~Michael Kiwanuka

I like a lot of soul, but I also put a lot of folk into what I do.

~Michael Kiwanuka

I think I skipped a lot of music, like when I was 17 or 18. I didn't know about a lot of new bands because I was so immersed in older music.

~Michael Kiwanuka

It's quite hard not to cringe at your own music; you're always a bit annoyed at some parts of it.

~Michael Kiwanuka

I love making music so it's important for me to keep doing that even if the schedule is busy.

~Michael Kiwanuka

I've been more single than not in my short life.

~Michael Kiwanuka

With writing music and writing songs and recording music and coming up with stuff, you need to kind of reengage that kind of inner child to come up with interesting perceptions.

~Michael Kiwanuka

Finding out that Ray Charles sang country songs but it sounded as soulful as any rhythm and blues record that kind of opened up my horizons for what songwriting was and what singers I could listen to.
