Kids are a great excuse for you to stop acting like one.

~Michael Madsen

Encourage your kids' artistic side. Toughen up everything else.

~Michael Madsen

I don't have a boss . . . nobody tells me what to do.

~Michael Madsen

Children recognize me from Free Willy (1993), and their parents recognize me from Reservoir Dogs (1992). The kids are, like, "There's Glen!" and the parents are, like, "Don't go near that guy!"

~Michael Madsen

Is it really selling out if it feeds your family?

~Michael Madsen

You kids shouldn't play so rough . . . somebody's gonna start crying.

~Michael Madsen

I've learned my lesson over the years about what to say and what not to say in interviews, that's for sure.

~Michael Madsen

Well, one thing for sure, I won't be remembered for 'Free Willy.' Or maybe I will.

~Michael Madsen

When you play a character that's someone real, when you're playing a true story, it's really great, 'cause you're not pretending to make up some silly thing.

~Michael Madsen

Your children don't have to fear you to respect you.

~Michael Madsen

I don't think I'm predominantly thought of as being a comedic actor.

~Michael Madsen

You know, every movie you make can't be great, no matter who you are.

~Michael Madsen
