But in America, if you're an atheist, you lose.

~Michael Newdow

It's one of the nice things about this nation that when the Constitution is violated, if it affects you, you can bring a suit.

~Michael Newdow

I was considering running for political office.

~Michael Newdow

I believe in the Constitution. The Constitution says that government isn't supposed to be infusing religion into our society, and so I asked to have that upheld.

~Michael Newdow

Obviously, I'll keep fighting to uphold the Constitution.

~Michael Newdow

Those who deny the existence of a supreme being have been turned into second-class citizens by a government that continuously sends messages that 'real Americans' believe in God.

~Michael Newdow

A federal judge did as he was supposed to do and upheld the Constitution. We should be thankful that we have judiciary that will do that.

~Michael Newdow

I brought this case because I am an atheist and this offends me, and I have the right to bring up my daughter without God being imposed into her life by her schoolteachers.

~Michael Newdow

Most people I know I think agree and even many theists agree with this.

We don't want government involved.

~Michael Newdow

My daughter is in the lawsuit because you need that for standing.

~Michael Newdow

A lot of God-loving people think that killing people who don't agree with them is OK.

~Michael Newdow

I feel like I am not an American in the eyes of my government because of their religious beliefs. I think that is un-American.

~Michael Newdow

Government needs to stay out of the religion business altogether.

~Michael Newdow

I think the Constitution has been upheld. I think they made the right decision.

~Michael Newdow

He's a smart man, so I am assuming he will do it.

~Michael Newdow

I choose to worship not believing in God and government should not thrust a religious idea down my throat.

~Michael Newdow

I have numerous people who have expressed a willingness to be plaintiffs.
