I think leading by example is important, as I know the next generation is watching us.

~Michael Skolnik

I know our kids will be OK, as long as they listen more to their mother than to me!

~Michael Skolnik

Go to countries where you don't speak the language. Eat food that looks like you may not like it. Read all of the holy books.

~Michael Skolnik

We must change the culture of politics first.

~Michael Skolnik

Do ballet and play football. Sing and dance. Laugh and cry.

~Michael Skolnik

I will go to my grave wishing that I did more. Wishing that I didn't sleep as much. Wishing that I didn't waste so much time. Wishing that I fought harder.

~Michael Skolnik

I just try to walk the walk. I try to live every day with the utmost honesty and integrity to myself and the people around me.

~Michael Skolnik

I am deeply inspired by the courage and achievements of young people who didn't have the safety nets I had growing up.

~Michael Skolnik

Let us not aspire to four-year goals but rather forty-year goals.

~Michael Skolnik

I think we have the potential to connect the world in a way that can save hundred of millions of lives. That should be our goal.

~Michael Skolnik

We can live nuanced, complicated, exciting lives with no reason for limitation.

~Michael Skolnik

Stop the bullsh*t. Stop drawing lines in the sand like previous generations [have done].

~Michael Skolnik

I wanted to tell stories about people who didn't have the chance to tell their own.

~Michael Skolnik

Fighting for social justice is not about leaving the mainstream. It is about being right in the middle of it.

~Michael Skolnik

I have been so damn lucky to be able to do what I love my entire life. I never take that for granted.

~Michael Skolnik

I don't focus on the results. Put my head down, put my hoodie up, and do the work.
