This is who I am. I'm not perfect. I don't want to try to be perfect.

~Michael Strahan

Believe it and it will happen.

~Michael Strahan

I think this can be a championship team. But we do have to take it one game at a time. You can't look at the end of the road before you get the next foot in.

~Michael Strahan

The team that is the most focused and executes the best is the team that wins. That's usually the team that can handle the pressure of the situation.

~Michael Strahan

You want to win and you want the [NFL] ring. But when you win and you get the ring, you never really wear it.

~Michael Strahan

At the same time, it makes me feel like I have to prove myself to the new guys coming in as well as prove myself to the coaching staff, which is a good bit of motivation for me.

~Michael Strahan

That's one of the great things about Thanksgiving: Football's on!

~Michael Strahan

My hobbies and leisure activities include cars and golf.

~Michael Strahan

The fact that we're in the playoffs doesn't mean anything to us, to be honest with you. Hopefully, we can accomplish our goal of going into the playoffs on a winning note.

~Michael Strahan

Well, I've been a fan of videogames all my life.

~Michael Strahan

Few people know that I grew up in Germany and that my family still lives there.

~Michael Strahan

If you're not the one cooking, stay out of the way and compliment the chef.

~Michael Strahan

My craziest ambition is to take John Madden's job and salary.

~Michael Strahan

I'm not an adulterer. I'm not gay.

~Michael Strahan

All camps are hard, that's what they're intended to be. They make you focus when you're tired, when you don't feel like doing things, and to see how long you can retain and pay attention.

~Michael Strahan

Camp is always all business.

~Michael Strahan

As the game gets bigger, it get bigger for the players.

~Michael Strahan
