I have two secret weapons -- my legs, my arms and my brain.

~Michael Vick

I'm willing to deal with the consequences and accept responsibility for my actions.

~Michael Vick

You only get one shot at a second chance.

~Michael Vick

Once I decided football was the way for me, there was no looking back. Nothing was going to distract me.

~Michael Vick

If it's meant to be for you, it's going to happen.

~Michael Vick

I know I'm good. I know I got game.

~Michael Vick

People respect me; I respect them. I'll never change. I realize who I am.

~Michael Vick

Use me as an example of an instrument of change.

~Michael Vick

I don't think the NFL has ever seen the likes of me, a quarterback who moves the way I do and throws the way I do. I'm not saying that with arrogance or anything. That is just how I feel.

~Michael Vick

It's good to have critics because that's what motivates you and helps you take your game to another level.

~Michael Vick

Sports kept me off the streets. It kept me from getting into what was going on, the bad stuff.

~Michael Vick

I have 2 weapons; my arms, my legs and my brain.

~Michael Vick

During my time in prison, I told myself that I wanted to be a part of the solution and not the problem.

~Michael Vick

I know I can still play at a high level.

~Michael Vick

It was hard to get away from all of the people that I thought had my best interest at heart, and they really didn't.

~Michael Vick

In any offense you put me in, when things break down, I'm going to get outside the pocket and move ... West Coast, East Coast. It doesn't matter. I'm taking off if I have to, to make things happen.

~Michael Vick

I would like to own a dog in the future. I think it would be a big step for me in the rehabilitation process.

~Michael Vick

Everybody who knows me knows how I get down.

~Michael Vick

I'm probably better than I ever was in my career, as far as the mental aspect of the game.

~Michael Vick

I trust my arm as much as I trust my legs.

~Michael Vick
