When you start being enthusiastic about whatever it is you like, that is the golden age for you.

~Michael Winterbottom

There's still a 1950s view of cinema, that there's one audience and they all want to see the same thing.

~Michael Winterbottom

When people approach me about my films it is usually to tell me how much they hate them.

~Michael Winterbottom

I'm a fan of music from all over the world.

~Michael Winterbottom

There's a lot of ridiculous hypocrisy about sex in films today. And that's one of the reasons why I made 9 Songs, to say, "Why can't you put sex in a film?"

~Michael Winterbottom

A lot of the aspects of the world of the film are amalgams of things that already exist.

~Michael Winterbottom

We always had the idea that there might be two slightly different versions of the same thing.

~Michael Winterbottom

I think it would be impossible if you had a name like mine not to get a little flack for it.

~Michael Winterbottom

I still enjoy watching films more than making them.

~Michael Winterbottom

You can almost take the book and use it as a script.
