One of my last few vices is coffee, but with a spot of almond or soymilk, it's never tasted better!

~Michelle Forbes

I thought a vegan diet would be too difficult, being on the road so much, but it's been far easier than I thought.

~Michelle Forbes

Pears are my favorite fruit! Reminds me of childhood.

~Michelle Forbes

I'd like to think I'm an actor who leaves things at work.

~Michelle Forbes

For whatever reason, every project I do becomes sort of a cult, or a cultish show, you know, like 'Battlestar,' or even a film I did years ago, 'Kalifornia,' people refer to it as a cult film.

~Michelle Forbes

As an actor, you want as much variety as you can muster up. Otherwise you just keep playing the same chord over and over again.

~Michelle Forbes

I've been watching 'Game of Thrones,' and I can't wait for 'Bored to Death' to come back, it's one of my faves.

~Michelle Forbes

So often in TV, when you have an antagonist who's supposed to be the 'big baddie,' it's so easy for them to become cliched.

~Michelle Forbes

That's what I think is smart about 'Durham County.' It's not derivative of anything American. It's more in the vein of the BBC miniseries I grew up with.

~Michelle Forbes

There's a feeling of immortality you have in youth. You just don't see the dangers around you, or, if you do, maybe you're even excited by them.

~Michelle Forbes

I've never had a plan. You look for different actors you want to work with or different subjects you want to explore, or sometimes it's just a momentary fancy.

~Michelle Forbes

I try to keep things as varied as possible in my career, and after playing something as fun and over the top as Maryann on 'True Blood,' I wanted to find something antithetical to that.
