I'm not the sharpest knife in the drawer, but I do know how to count.

~Mickey Gilley

If you have good food, people will come to your restaurant.

~Mickey Gilley

If you're not on a major label today, you're not gonna get played. They've got the market sewed up.

~Mickey Gilley

If I cut an album now and sell it for ten bucks, I can put seven dollars and fifty cents in my pocket.

~Mickey Gilley

I've grown up with my audience; they're my age or older. Not a lot of kids are coming to see me.

~Mickey Gilley

All I want to do is do my shows and play golf.

~Mickey Gilley

I had some airline stock, but the airlines tanked. I didn't have a lot of money in them, though.

~Mickey Gilley

Don't all the girls get prettier at closing time?

~Mickey Gilley

When a record co. finds a guy now, they want to own everything. They want to own the rights to market that person's particular name. They want a piece of the action all the way through.

~Mickey Gilley

So I'm trying to spread myself to the point to where I can do the night shows and not have to worry about the matinees, and do one or two matinees down through the year.

~Mickey Gilley

There used to be a lot of acts, which was good, because people don't want to see the same act every night. But, you don't want too many acts, you don't want to over-saturate it.

~Mickey Gilley

I don't own everything, I do have a partner.

~Mickey Gilley

I try to stay ahead of things, if you know what I mean. I take the money I make and reinvest it.

~Mickey Gilley

I never made any money off of my records. It gave me the name across the country so that I could do some of the things in my personal appearances.

~Mickey Gilley

A record co. is just a vehicle for public appearances.

~Mickey Gilley

All I have to concentrate on is my performing.

~Mickey Gilley

All my money was made doing the dates and selling products when I was out there on the road.

~Mickey Gilley

I had a few stocks, but stocks took a dive. I never sell my stocks.

~Mickey Gilley

I'm set to have my best year ever: I'm hiring some acts and there will be a show in the morning, in the afternoon and in the evening. I'm going to use my theater to its fullest potential.
