My goals are to hit .300, score 100 runs, and stay injury-prone.

~Mickey Rivers

Out of what... a thousand?

~Mickey Rivers

Your first name's white, your second is Hispanic, and your third belongs to a black. No wonder you don't know who you are.

~Mickey Rivers

Don't worry about things that you have no control over, because you have no control over them. Don't worry about things that you have control over, because you have control over them.

~Mickey Rivers

He's so ugly. When you walked by him, your pants wrinkle. He made fly balls curve foul.

~Mickey Rivers

What was the name of that dog on "Rin Tin Tin"?

~Mickey Rivers

I was brought up in Florida, so there isn't much difference between playing there and playing here. The climates are about the same.

~Mickey Rivers

We'll do all right if we can capitalize on our mistakes.

~Mickey Rivers

I might have to commute. You know, left field, DH, wherever.

~Mickey Rivers

The first thing you do when you get out to center field is put up your finger and check the wind chill factor.

~Mickey Rivers

These guys are so old they're eligible for meals on wheels.

~Mickey Rivers

Pitching is 80% of the game and the other half is hitting and fielding.

~Mickey Rivers

Me and George and Billy are two of a kind.

~Mickey Rivers

You'd better stop readin' and writin' and start hittin' !

~Mickey Rivers

It was so cold today that I saw a dog chasing a cat, and the dog was walking.
