It's not your blue blood, your pedigree or your college degree. It's what you do with your life that counts.

~Millard Fuller

For a community to be whole and healthy, it must be based on people's love and concern for each other.

~Millard Fuller

We have the know-how in the world to house everyone. We have the resources in the world to house everyone. All that's missing is the WILL to do it.

~Millard Fuller

This is God's work. It makes blisters and it makes sweat, but it's worth my time and it's worth your time....Working together as God's people in the world-I don't know of anything more rewarding.

~Millard Fuller

I see life as both a gift and a responsibility. My responsibility is to use what God has given me to help His people in need.

~Millard Fuller

We want to make it socially, morally, politically and religiously unacceptable to have substandard housing and homelessness.

~Millard Fuller

There are sufficient resources in the world for the needs of everybody, but not enough for the greed of even a significant minority.

~Millard Fuller

Everyone who gets sleepy at night should have a simple decent place to lay their heads, on terms they can afford to pay.

~Millard Fuller

I have tried raising money by asking for it, and by not asking for it. I always got more by asking for it.

~Millard Fuller

The only safe investment one can make in life is what is given away.

~Millard Fuller

Faith must become more than a verbal proclamation or an intellectual assent. True faith must be acted out.

Faith without works is as dead as a doornail.
