I want to be stereotyped. I want to be classified.

~Milo Aukerman

The most visceral expression of emotion in music.

~Milo Aukerman

Once it stops being fun, we won't be able to do it anymore. People are going to know that we're not having fun, and we're going to know that we're not having fun. So at that point, it just ends.

~Milo Aukerman

We want to mentally be young, even if physically we're not.

~Milo Aukerman

The two things that matter are the desire, and being healthy enough to do it. Everything else to me is a non-issue.

~Milo Aukerman

I don't want to live your dream. That's your dream. Go ahead and do it. But it's not mine.

~Milo Aukerman

Part of 'Beyond The Music' is also the notion that no matter what came of us, or the band, the most important thing for us ended up being the friendships.

~Milo Aukerman

I tend to be the one that breaks the mold most often, and thus, I tend to be the one with a lot of outtakes, songs that don't make the record.

~Milo Aukerman

I still think punk's around. It's been pushed into the mainstream and it gets harder to draw that line between what's pop and what's punk.

~Milo Aukerman

I've never written a song about DNA or anything that I work on. But I just think that DIY aspect, and the creativity and the belonging and acceptance is what drew me in.
