I would rather do many small roles on TV, stage or film than one blockbuster that made me rich but had no acting.

~Miranda Richardson

Insecurity, commonly regarded as a weakness in normal people, is the basic tool of the actor's trade.

~Miranda Richardson

You can have a laugh in Los Angeles, or you can weep in Los Angeles, depending on your attitude towards it.

~Miranda Richardson

It sounds ideal, a sort of beach childhood. But it wasn't really. I didn't use the beach very much at all.

~Miranda Richardson

And there's no way I'm going to do Dame Edna.

~Miranda Richardson

I like the personality of the Belgians. They're deeply eccentric, which is something that comes across in their design - terrific.

~Miranda Richardson

You cant please all the people all the time.

~Miranda Richardson

My phrase has always been that I am looking for the versatility of theatre in film. I think I have been quite lucky in that so far.

~Miranda Richardson

I have no idea what my persona would be. As far as I'm concerned, I'm changing all the time.

~Miranda Richardson

I don't necessarily wait for that massive leading role. I want to keep the juices flowing.

~Miranda Richardson

My roots are still in Britain, that's where I live, that's the place where I come from.

~Miranda Richardson

London keeps me grounded. We don't get praised every time we open our gobs there.

~Miranda Richardson

Why did I not stop to have children? I suppose because the opportunity didn't present itself. Yes, many women feel they are not complete without having children, but I have different creative outlets.

~Miranda Richardson

I'm not someone who can lie on a beach and do nothing. I am not sure what you are supposed to do, so I get bored. I prefer to have a purpose, such as going to Alaska to see orca whales.

~Miranda Richardson

I'm so boring that press kind of leave me alone now. People will believe what they want to believe anyway.

~Miranda Richardson

If I don't believe in a role, I can't pull it off.

~Miranda Richardson

I carry music in my head, so I don't need more. It drives me nuts that, in hotels or on boats, people seem to think you need music 24 hours a day.

~Miranda Richardson

We're still fighting over the same issue - equal pay.

~Miranda Richardson

Feminism was a dirty word for a while.

~Miranda Richardson

Somebody referred to me as a ringleader, which I wouldn't have classed myself as, but anyway, there you go.

~Miranda Richardson

Our press is the most disgusting in the world.

~Miranda Richardson

It makes me feel resilient when you tackle different things.

~Miranda Richardson

I need my friends, I need my house, I need my garden.

~Miranda Richardson

I wouldn't want to go back to my 20s; they were pretty angst-laden times.

~Miranda Richardson

If somebody says, "Oh, we're going to improvise!," I'm like, Oh, get me out of here.

~Miranda Richardson

It's difficult to keep in touch with someone when you're moving around all the time. I've decided that you can have it all, but you can't have it all, all of the time.

~Miranda Richardson

I've never felt stigmatized in my profession, nor have I allowed myself to. I don't feel either male or female, I feel I am just me, and I should be able to do whatever I like.

~Miranda Richardson

I hope that you walk around the corner and you get very surprised.
