I feel more comfortable when I'm somebody else, I think. When I'm taking a picture as myself, the whole idea of taking a headshot, to me, feels very false.

~Missi Pyle

I really love being a character actor. I have to say I wish it were a little easier. There are still a lot of things that I don't get, like I do wish I had more of my own.

~Missi Pyle

The older I get, the more I appreciate what came before.

~Missi Pyle

My family is still very Southern Baptist, and they're religious.

~Missi Pyle

People will go into an audition and a casting situation, and they'll see someone across the room that's perhaps slightly famous, or famous, and they think, 'Oh God, I'm not gonna get the part.

~Missi Pyle

I really love being a character actor.

~Missi Pyle

I had been wanting to do a musical for a really long time. I wanted people in New York to know that I can sing.

~Missi Pyle

My family is not at all involved in television, or film, or theatre, or any of it, really.

~Missi Pyle

I grew up in the Southern Baptist Church, where my father was a minister at music, so I sang in the church all the time.

~Missi Pyle

I'm really tall - almost six feet - and my features tend to be extreme, especially on TV.

~Missi Pyle

I started performing in high school. There was a pretty great drama department at my school, and that's when I started doing plays and musicals.

~Missi Pyle

I have a very hard time with confrontation in my own life, and I end up being way too nice.

~Missi Pyle

There was a male sketch group in my college. I was like why isn't there a female sketch group? So then I started doing sketch comedy and all that stuff. It just happened.
