The single most important thing we want to achieve is for President Obama to be a one-term president.

~Mitch McConnell

All Citizens United did was to level the playing field for corporate speech. We now have, I think, the most free and open system we've had in modern times.

~Mitch McConnell

You'll regret this, and you may regret this a lot sooner than you think.

~Mitch McConnell

For everybody who thinks it's warming, I can find somebody who thinks it isn't.

~Mitch McConnell

Republicans will not be reduced to being the tax collectors for the Obama economy.

~Mitch McConnell

It's a shame that we have to use whatever leverage we have in Congress to get the president to deal with the biggest problem confronting our future. And that's our excessive spending.

~Mitch McConnell

The worst day of my political life was when President George W. Bush signed McCain-Feingold into law.

~Mitch McConnell

America is about to turn the page on Barack Obama's four-year experiment in big government.

~Mitch McConnell

Whether it's before the election or after the election, the principle is the

~Mitch McConnell

The money that goes into Social Security is not the government's money. It's your money. You paid for it.

~Mitch McConnell

More young people believe they'll see a U.F.O. than that they'll see their own Social Security benefits.

~Mitch McConnell

Are we still a country that takes risks, that innovates, that believes anything is possible? Or are we a country that is resigned to whatever liberty the government decides to dish out?

~Mitch McConnell

The minimum wage is mostly an entry-level wage for young people.

~Mitch McConnell

The White House has a choice: They can change course, or they can double down on a vision of government that the American people have roundly rejected.

~Mitch McConnell

We have a debt the size of our economy, which makes us look a lot like Greece.

~Mitch McConnell

Obama hasn't been working to earn reelection, he's been working to earn a spot on the PGA tour!

~Mitch McConnell

We all know that Social Security is one of this country's greatest success stories in the 20th century.

~Mitch McConnell

The worst experience any majority can have is that you convene and you look around and nothing's ready to go.

~Mitch McConnell

I'm really proud of this Supreme Court and the way they've been dealing with the issue of First Amendment political speech.

~Mitch McConnell

I've often wished we had more women in the Senate.

~Mitch McConnell

It's important to remember that some of our best sources in the war against radical Islamic terrorism are Muslims, both in America and overseas.

~Mitch McConnell

It took us in this country 11 years to get from the Declaration of Independence to the Constitution.

~Mitch McConnell

The administration still wants to govern from the far-left and that's going to produce kind a partisan result here in the Congress.

~Mitch McConnell

Public disclosure of campaign contributions and spending should be expedited so voters can judge for themselves what is appropriate.

~Mitch McConnell

I think it is to the advantage of my state to have the opportunity to come to meetings occasionally and to vote in person, rather than just by proxy.

~Mitch McConnell

We're certainly gonna keep our commitment to the American people to make every effort we can to repeal [Obamacare].

~Mitch McConnell

The debt they ran up in the first year of the Obama administration is bigger than the last four years of the Bush combined.

~Mitch McConnell

While other state governments stiff their vendors, close parks, delay tax refunds, and ignore unacceptably poor service levels, Indiana state employees are setting national standards for efficiency.

~Mitch McConnell

The new troops in Iraq need to be Iraqi troops.

~Mitch McConnell

Forcing free market plans to compete with these government-run programs would create an unlevel playing field and inevitably doom true competition.

~Mitch McConnell
