I have a gajillion headbands - yellows, pinks, reds, blues. I'm obsessed.

~Monique Coleman

I was babysitting the night High School Musical premiered last year. I watched with the kids and we sang along to the lyrics. I was making $12 an hour.

~Monique Coleman

I'm good in the kitchen. I can cook seafood, collard greens, black-eyed peas.

~Monique Coleman

In case of emergency, do whatever your best friends tell you to do!

~Monique Coleman

I'm an adventurer. I believe in being bold and brave - and taking risks. Even if I'm afraid of something, I'll still have a go at it.

~Monique Coleman

As an African American actress there are people who have been staples in my life that opened a door that I can walk through. I hope that I can have that impact.

~Monique Coleman

If every young person pursued their greatest passion and then said, 'What part of this can be applied to social good?' You don't have to choose between being successful and being a philanthropist.

~Monique Coleman

I really understand the idea of pride and honour. I have that in my family, so I understand it completely.

~Monique Coleman

Do your own thing; always follow your dreams and don't feel limited by what someone prescribes to you as to what you should do. Expand your horizons, try new things, be adventurous.

~Monique Coleman

When I get recognized, every time feels like the first time.

~Monique Coleman

I play so young because of my looks.

~Monique Coleman

Don't think that you can just rely on natural talent because there are going to be times when you get a little tired and that's when your skills come into play to help you make look easy.

~Monique Coleman

You have to split, bend over backward, touch our toe to our heads to get recognized.

~Monique Coleman

I love the idea that somebody is going to compare me to my character or think that I am like my character when they see me. I feel like that is a role that I am willing to fulfill.

~Monique Coleman

I think it is important for girls to see movies where it is not all just about 'the boy' or it's simply being about 'the relationship' or 'Am I pretty enough?' or 'Am I cute enough?'.

~Monique Coleman

My character, Taylor McKessie, is a little bit brighter in the math and science department than I am... okay, a lot.

~Monique Coleman

High School Musical is definitely the best thing that's happened to my career and I walked away with great friends from it.

~Monique Coleman

I look like a child - and I love it!
