I don't know if anybody can second-guess what they will do on Capitol Hill.

~Montel Williams

I'm not disabled, I'm Differently Able!

~Montel Williams

...that I alone hold the definition of what I am.

~Montel Williams

Live with no excuses and love with no regrets.

~Montel Williams

If you're in a relationship and you want to make it work, you have to be a little selfless at times.

~Montel Williams

If we get the donations, I think we're going to raise a significant amount of money; some will be used for some administered costs, but the public portion of that will go directly into grants.

~Montel Williams

As soon as we find a cure, we will utilize any of the donations to go toward providing medication to those who can't afford it. That is my goal.

~Montel Williams

I'll find places to grab as I walk and talk, sometimes even walking backwards because I have more control that way. People have no idea that I'm doing this.

~Montel Williams

There was a time when the FCC tried to require a certain amount of television and media to be educational, a certain amount to be newsworthy and a certain amount of it to be public access.

~Montel Williams

I have based my life on being strong enough to do anything.

~Montel Williams

"They've been trying to test on animals for the past 50 years. Nobody's come up with a cure,"he says. "If you want to test on somebody, test on me."

~Montel Williams

Let's be careful when we start comparing American to European tolerance because there isn't necessarily a lot of European tolerance.

~Montel Williams

Is the U.S. better or is the world better? Is the U.S. better off today than we were four years ago? Obviously not, economically not. I think our stature in the world is not the same.
