For the truly faithful, no miracle is necessary. For those who doubt, no miracle is sufficient.

~Nancy Gibbs

You must get courageous men, men of strong views and let them debate and argue with each other.

~Nancy Gibbs

The challenge was that it was harder to be subtle than strident.

~Nancy Gibbs

Illusions are the truths we live by until we know better.

~Nancy Gibbs

I would like to see every newspaper and every magazine have a network of bureaus all over the world, gathering news.

~Nancy Gibbs

On a normal day, we value heroism because it is uncommon. On Sept. 11, we valued heroism because it was everywhere.

~Nancy Gibbs

In many parts of the world, more people have access to a mobile device than to a toilet or running water...

~Nancy Gibbs

Kids are more nimble than wise.

~Nancy Gibbs

There may be no less original idea than the notion that our hearts hold dominion over our heads.

~Nancy Gibbs

~Nancy Gibbs

A runner's stride is not perfectly efficient.

~Nancy Gibbs

The one problem with the Internet for journalists who like doing long form is that any story that's going to involve 16 screens on the web page... that's asking a lot of people.

~Nancy Gibbs

Americas presidents tend to die young. Maybe it is in the nature of the men who reach such heights, or of the job once they attain it.

~Nancy Gibbs

Time is valuable; people are busy.

~Nancy Gibbs

If Heaven is willing to sing to us, it is little to ask that we be ready to listen.

~Nancy Gibbs

Dwight Eisenhower was candid in private, but he was circumspect in public.
