Rock was always part of my heart and soul. But the times just changed and everybody wanted to dance.

~Narada Michael Walden

There's nothing more exciting than playing live for the people. Just play it, just do it.

~Narada Michael Walden

I'm known for being a good listener. Most people need a lot of love and encouragement and I'm more than willing to give a person all the encouragement and time they need.

~Narada Michael Walden

I feel like before I came to the planet I asked God for the gift of music. I didn't want to come here without the gift of music and God granted it to me.

~Narada Michael Walden

I just want to play for the people, give my new sound to them, and encourage them and be encouraged by people.

~Narada Michael Walden

I wanted to be Jimi Hendrix's drummer when I was in high school, but I graduated in 1970, the year he died.

~Narada Michael Walden

I take jobs with people I admire, people with incredible talent who aren't necessarily big sellers.

~Narada Michael Walden

A lot of artists don't like the sound of their voice. They're put off by it.

~Narada Michael Walden

I think it's artist's role to give and to receive and the people to give it, hear it, vibe on it, and give it back around again.

~Narada Michael Walden

Ray Gomez is one of the greatest guitarists of all times!
