Most books and movies that are handed to teenagers are filled with stereotypes.

~Nat Wolff

I don't want to play high schoolers anymore. I guess I don't feel that way. I just want to play characters who are really good.

~Nat Wolff

When romance is done well in a movie, its awesome.

~Nat Wolff

I think as long as I have a creative outlet, I'm happy.

~Nat Wolff

I love James Taylor, Jeff Buckley, Elliott Smith and Nine Inch Nails.

~Nat Wolff

I'm lucky that I got to start acting when I was so young, and people put me in these movies. A lot of people don't get to play these parts because they start a little older.

~Nat Wolff

Jazz is a constant theme in my life. My father is a jazz pianist, and from an early age I have been surrounded by it.

~Nat Wolff

I would not describe myself as an avid jazz fan and I am not a jazz musician myself. However, that is not to say that jazz does not play a vital and important role in my life.

~Nat Wolff

I think music is my favorite thing to do, but I go through periods where I think differently.

~Nat Wolff

I kind of help solve world peace and world hunger. That's just kind of an average day off for me.

~Nat Wolff

A lot of times people come up to me saying 'oh my god you can see,' and they think they're the first person to think of that joke, but they're probably the 10,000th one to say that joke.

~Nat Wolff

Mickey [Rourke] one time just basically drove off in the picture car that we were driving in. For my amusement. It was either to kidnap me or for my amusement.

~Nat Wolff

A lot of times you'll do a movie, and you'll be working with adults with families and kids and stuff. There's a level - you guys aren't going to be hanging out every second, you know?

~Nat Wolff

I think Paul Weitz is a really amazing director, obviously with tons of acclaim and stuff, but I still think he is underrated. And I think he's amazing to work with, so I was super lucky.
