Don't be afraid of death; be afraid of an unlived life. You don't have to live forever, you just have to live.

~Natalie Babbitt

The first week of August hangs at the very top of summer, the top of the live-long year, like the highest seat of a Ferris wheel when it pauses in its turning.

~Natalie Babbitt

Readers are lucky - they will never be bored or lonely.

~Natalie Babbitt

Life's got to be lived, no matter how long or short. You got to take what comes.

~Natalie Babbitt

Still-there's no use trying to figure why things fall the way they do. Things just are, and fussing don't bring changes.

~Natalie Babbitt

Don't fear death, fear the un-lived life

~Natalie Babbitt

It'd be nice to have a new name, to start with, one that's not all worn out from being called so much.

~Natalie Babbitt

For some, time passes slowly. An hour can seem like an eternity. For others, there was never enough. For Jesse Tuck, it didn't exist.

~Natalie Babbitt

Nothing seems interesting when it belongs to you, only when it doesn't.

~Natalie Babbitt

You dont have to live forever just live.

~Natalie Babbitt

Facts are the barren branches on which we hang the dear, obscuring foliage of our dreams.

~Natalie Babbitt

People got to do something useful if they're going to take up space in the world.

~Natalie Babbitt

But dying's part of the wheel, right there next to being born. You can't pick out the pieces you like and leave the rest. Being part of the whole thing, that's the blessing.

~Natalie Babbitt

my mother always found me out. Always. She's been dead for thirty-five years, but I have this feeling that even now she's watching.

~Natalie Babbitt

Like all magnificent things, it's very simple.

~Natalie Babbitt

I have a wonderful husband, and we have had a great life.

~Natalie Babbitt

I was born and raised in Ohio. During my childhood, I spent most of my time drawing and reading fairy tales and myths.
