Abolish the Loyal League and the Ku Klux Klan; let us come together and stand together.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

We have but one flag, one country; let us stand together. We may differ in color, but not in sentiment.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

We are born on the same soil, breathe the same air, live on the same land, and why should we not be brothers and sisters?

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

I have stood your meanness as long as I intend to. You have played the part of a damn scoundrel, and if you were any part of a man I would slap your jaws and force you to resent it.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

Nobody kills me and lives to tell about it.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

I will be in my coffin before I will fight again under your command.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

If one road led to hell and the other to Mexico, I would be indifferent which to take.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

If you surrender you shall be treated as prisoners of war, but if I have to storm your works you may expect no quarter.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

I done told you twice already goddammit no!

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

War means fighting, and fighting means killing.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

Never stand and take a charge... charge them too.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

No damn man kills me and lives.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

Get there first with the most men.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

Attack in all directions!

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

What I desire most of you, my son, is never to gamble or swear. These are baneful vices.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

I went into the army worth a million and a half dollars, and came out a beggar.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

I've got no respect for any young man who won't join the colors.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

I did not come here for the purpose of surrendering my command.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

Men, do as I say and I will always lead you to victory.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest

Forward, men, and mix with them.

~Nathan Bedford Forrest
