Over the last six years, airlines have experienced severe financial pressure to leave smaller communities, making demands on the EAS program even greater.

~Nick Rahall

But through world wars and a Great Depression, through painful social upheaval and a Cold War, and now through the attacks of September 11, 2001, our Nation has indeed survived.

~Nick Rahall

Wilderness is not defined by the absence of certain activities, but rather by the presence of certain unique and invaluable characteristics.

~Nick Rahall

We all understand that compromise is part of the legislative process, yet at the same time, I would submit that wilderness is not for sale.

~Nick Rahall

Peace cannot come from punishing the Palestinian people.

~Nick Rahall

As a people of faith, we know that prayer is a powerful instrument. And as one Nation under God, we know that many times our most powerful tool is prayer.
