I've tried everything other than jumping out of a plane, but nothing gives you an adrenaline rush like racing a car.

~Nigel Mansell

I've been in motorsport my whole life since I was eight years of age.

~Nigel Mansell

Everything in Formula 1 has been sterilised now, the whole thing is controlled too much.

~Nigel Mansell

I think life is full of challenges and problems. I don't believe that anyone is perfect. We all make mistakes. It's not a bed of roses, and you have to work real hard at it.

~Nigel Mansell

Racing a thoroughbred grand prix car in front of a home crowd will be a surreal and mighty experience.

~Nigel Mansell

The Masters is going to be an awesome challenge.

~Nigel Mansell

Every GP Masters race will stand out because we will be available for fans, media and sponsors.

~Nigel Mansell

The preparation, commitment and desire to win will be no less than the last time I drove a grand prix car in anger.

~Nigel Mansell

Firstly the cars aren't too complicated. They have no traction control, for example, which means you can spin if you try too hard and damage your tires if you're not careful with your driving style.

~Nigel Mansell

I've always been reasonably fatalistic.

~Nigel Mansell

My grandfather always told me that it is no good lying on a hospital bed saying, 'I had the right of way', ... That's one of the reasons I was so pleased that the boys could do the IAM test as well.

~Nigel Mansell

The hunger and desire to go racing, however, never leaves your blood but the right opportunity has never really come along - until now that is.

~Nigel Mansell

Alain will do everything in his power to win, he doesn't like getting beaten by anyone and least of all me.

~Nigel Mansell
