

Noel Fielding Quotes

Funny, Humor, People, Thinking, Kids, Men, Children, World, Audience, Dad, Jobs, Mean, School, Depressing, Drunk, Ponchos, Crowds, Imagination, Way, Hate

People said, 'You must be mad, or on drugs,' which I found a bit disappointing. What about imagination? It reflects our time that people sooner assume you're on drugs or mad, rather than free.

~Noel Fielding

No means yes in grasshopper language.

~Noel Fielding

Reality depresses me. I need to find fantasy worlds and escape in them.

~Noel Fielding

It's impossible to be unhappy while wearing a poncho!

~Noel Fielding

All my friends got dogs and cats for Christmas, and I got a starfish called Roy. I used to take him down to the park on a lead.

~Noel Fielding

Imagine that, a poncho sombrero combo, I'll be off my tits on happiness.

~Noel Fielding

When I'm 70 I might be a man in a park just wandering around, speaking in tongues with kids throwing bread at me.

~Noel Fielding

Never try and go on a solo mission on your own.

~Noel Fielding

I've had a really weird day, some joker threw bamboo in the penguin enclosure. They all vaulted out. It was a nightmare, it took me all morning to get them back in.

~Noel Fielding

I don't really like jokes in a way. I mean gags are fine but I like weird moments where what you have isn't really a joke, just tiny moments.

~Noel Fielding

I've got it all in here ultra violets, flying saucers, strawberry bootlace come on get involved.

~Noel Fielding

You know the black bits in bananas? Are they tarantulas' eggs?

~Noel Fielding

When I was 14, I saw someone getting their face and wrists slashed with a knife in a pub in Catford. Nobody lifted a finger. That's when I realised that violence wasn't funny. At all.

~Noel Fielding

There's not enough psychedelic stuff on TV. I want the world to be a bit weirder than it is. I hate reality, so I hate reality TV. But I love Columbo.

~Noel Fielding

Last time you bring me pie, I cut into it, with my tiny pie cutter, and millions of birds flew out hitting me in the eyes and the temples... it was a trick pie!

~Noel Fielding

You must have stuck a finger up your arse at least once.

~Noel Fielding

Yeah? Rock 'n' Roll is fast, you know. If all goes according to plan I could be in rehab next thursday. Tuesday week I'll be living on an island with a small Indian boy.

~Noel Fielding

Trousers can never be too tight. You have to go through a couple of days of pain, then everything stretches out.

~Noel Fielding

I couldn't have invented crisps. ... I don't really want to be known as the man who invented crisps. ... I invented apples. ... I invented pandas, and caps. I invented soil.

~Noel Fielding

The tie's a multi purpose accessory, y'know, belt, school boy, Rambo.

~Noel Fielding

My nan used to look after me in the summer holidays and she had a cat with one eye. It used to walk into walls and tables. I used to think it was hilarious. It was a slapstick cat.

~Noel Fielding

Some people have a fear of being on stage. I have a fear of coming off it.

~Noel Fielding

I don't pick stuff up, I knock stuff down!

~Noel Fielding

That's the authentic punk dance. It's like a child dizzy on lemonade.

~Noel Fielding

I don't think I'd have done comedy if I was born eighty years ago I'd have been a lord. Shooting people that were on my land With a wig, yeah. And some crisps.

~Noel Fielding

We got everythin' we need here. We got Baileys, creamy, and, um... everythin' good. I'll get ya another Baileys

~Noel Fielding

In comedy, you see yourself as a newcomer and then you realize you've been doing it for 18, 20 years, which is ridiculous.

~Noel Fielding

There's something amazing about tea. It's good before a meal, after a meal, when drunk, when taking drugs, while playing football and after being called a poof in the street.

~Noel Fielding

I'm a mischievous drunk.

~Noel Fielding

When you're famous you can't go to Topshop. Even when I disguise myself in a moustache, baseball cap, sunglasses - the full Madonna kit - it doesn't work: my stupid face is too big.

~Noel Fielding

When you start, it's not to do with the material so much. It's more to do with how you can control a crowd and make friends with an audience and sell your brand of humor.

~Noel Fielding

When you're quite young, your imagination's quite free.

~Noel Fielding

They call me the confuser. Is he a man... is he a woman? Ooh, I'm not sure if I mind.

~Noel Fielding

I find it depressing that people think you have to be on drugs to watch [my stuff], that's a cop out, use your brain, use your imagination.

~Noel Fielding

I could get an audience into my world and if you can do that, they'll go with you not all the way, but a lot of the way.

~Noel Fielding

Goth Juice... The most powerful hairspray known to man. Made from the tears of Robert Smith.

~Noel Fielding

Science teachers and the mentally ill, that's all Jazz is for.

~Noel Fielding

If you're going to be a good standup, or a successful standup, or a standup who can work for money, you have to eliminate the possibility of dying quickly.

~Noel Fielding

It's very difficult once you've been on telly because people know what you do. They give you a little bit of grace but then they're harsher if you're not funny, so you have to be funny.

~Noel Fielding

I don't hate Coldplay to be cool I genuinely hate Coldplay.

~Noel Fielding

You can't just go gay, its not like buying a ladder.

~Noel Fielding

When you're a kid and someone's an artist, you think of Leonardo da Vinci. You don't think that's a job; you just think of a man with a beard painting the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel.

~Noel Fielding

I did work in a bakery for one day. But the boss went off and when he came back I was lying on the floor eating cakes.

~Noel Fielding

When I was a little kid I wanted to be Face. I thought, cos I had blond hair and he did too, that when I grew up I'd look like him.

~Noel Fielding

Englishmen do like to get in a dress, any excuse.

~Noel Fielding

When I was three or four, I was really good at drawing and painting, and everyone used to say, "You're going to go to art college." I didn't really know what that meant.

~Noel Fielding

When I was a little kid I always wanted to be ginger. My best friend was ginger and he was pretty cool.

~Noel Fielding

When I was a really young child, I felt like I could see fairies. I was convinced there were fairies in my grandmother's garden.

~Noel Fielding

I always wanted to travel around and see lots of America, I'd never been to Boston, I'd never been to San Francisco even, so I'm quite excited to just go the places.

~Noel Fielding

I'd like to punch out a really old lady. There'd be no repercussions.

~Noel Fielding

Related Links:

- Funny Quotes
- Humor Quotes
- People Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Kids Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Children Quotes
- World Quotes
- Audience Quotes
- Dad Quotes
- Jobs Quotes
- Mean Quotes
- School Quotes
- Depressing Quotes
- Drunk Quotes
- Ponchos Quotes
- Crowds Quotes
- Imagination Quotes
- Way Quotes
- Hate Quotes