When I go home my mother still makes me take out the garbage.

~Nomar Garciaparra

I love the game of baseball.

~Nomar Garciaparra

People expect you to play your best, so I go through a routine to prepare myself so that I know I'm physically and mentally ready - prepared for the game.

~Nomar Garciaparra

I feel good, and the way I determine it is through my workout. I work so hard in the offseason that if I'm able to do everything I have to, I figure I must be healthy.

~Nomar Garciaparra

You know it as soon as you walk in Yankee Stadium. The electricity is there every time, every day.

~Nomar Garciaparra

You can't hit without your hands.

~Nomar Garciaparra

Get an education because no one can take that away from you.

~Nomar Garciaparra

One of my superstitions is I'm not allowed to talk about them.

~Nomar Garciaparra

That's basically what I'm doing when I'm tapping them - getting my toes to the end of my shoes.

~Nomar Garciaparra

All players are their own worst critics. We are harder on ourselves than anyone else is.

~Nomar Garciaparra

People ask me if my shoes were too small when I was a kid and I say it wouldn't matter how tight my shoes were, I just liked that feeling of them being in there. That's how I started tapping my toes.

~Nomar Garciaparra

People are going to make comparisons and they can do that but I'm definitely not going to compare myself to Derek Jeter.

~Nomar Garciaparra

It's great that fans have people they can enjoy and watch play.

~Nomar Garciaparra

My inspiration was the game itself, not any individual player in it.
