I suspect that the only thing that will take Articles Two and Three out of the Irish Constitution is when the bombs begin to blow in Dublin in the way that they have been in Belfast and in London.

~Norman Tebbit

I grew up in the 30s with an unemployed father. He didn't riot; he got on his bike and looked for work and he kept looking 'til he found it.

~Norman Tebbit

Parliament must not be told a direct untruth, but its quite possible to allow them to mislead themselves.

~Norman Tebbit

Opinion polls are not worth the paper they are written on, in my view, through the conference season. They don't settle down again until November.

~Norman Tebbit

The Muslim religion is so unreformed since it was created that nowhere in the Muslim world has there been any real advance in science, or art or literature, or technology in the last 500 years.

~Norman Tebbit

The BBC is another part of the destruction of Great Britain. The truth is that the BBC doesn't know that it is biased. It thinks that Guardian reading champagne socialists are the norm.

~Norman Tebbit

He (John Major) has the mulishness of a weak man with stupidity.

~Norman Tebbit

I haven't got a racist bone in my little finger.

~Norman Tebbit

My dad didn't riot. He got on his bike and looked for work

~Norman Tebbit

[The poll tax] was a classic case of a good idea being entrusted to Chris Patten and becoming a terrible failure.

~Norman Tebbit

I think that could be perhaps a little misleading and even our statistics can mislead people at the times though they are not misleading in themselves. It is just that people get misled

~Norman Tebbit

The Conservatives played like England cricketers - too many rash strokes and run-outs, dropped catches and bowling anywhere but the stumps.

~Norman Tebbit

It is certainly safe, in view of the movement to the right of intellectuals and political thinkers, to pronounce the brain death of socialism.

~Norman Tebbit

I've never bashed a union in my life.

~Norman Tebbit

It's good to remember the unburied dead and the uncollected rubbish. Most of it can now be seen on the Labour benches in the House of Commons.

~Norman Tebbit
