As you get older three things happen. The first is your memory goes, and I can't remember the other two.

~Norman Wisdom

I play drums, clarinet, saxophone, trumpet, french horn, piano.

~Norman Wisdom

Such is life and life is such and after all it isn't much. First a cradle. Then a hearse. It might have been better, but it could have been worse.

~Norman Wisdom

I owe everything to the army.

~Norman Wisdom

You know I've got a chum, a smashing mate, he's got a dog with no legs, and he calls it a cigarette. It's true, yeah, because at nighttime he has to take it out for a drag.

~Norman Wisdom

It was absolutely thrilling to meet Laurel and Hardy, they were so nice.

~Norman Wisdom

But no, I've just been very lucky. But I've worked hard, and the harder you work, the luckier you seem to get.

~Norman Wisdom

I've got one idea I want to do for a film and you know I just enjoy myself doing bits and pieces.

~Norman Wisdom

I was born in very sorry circumstances. Both of my parents were very sorry

~Norman Wisdom

All my boyhood, all I ever wanted was to be loved.

~Norman Wisdom

My comedy is for children from three to 93. You do need a slightly childish sense of humour and if you haven't got that, it's very sad.

~Norman Wisdom

I don't know nothing about communism. But I know the Albanians loved me. Same reason as anyone else loves me. Because I made them laugh.

~Norman Wisdom

I used to first go on to entertain an audience. But now I go, and this is really true - I go on to have fun with a crowd of my chums.

~Norman Wisdom

I like consistency. If you've had a childhood like mine, you want some things you can rely on to stay the same.

~Norman Wisdom

At my age, the radiation will probably do me good.

~Norman Wisdom

I was born in London, and went to school in Scotland - I used to be dead tired when I got home at night.

~Norman Wisdom

I've been extremely lucky having been in the army when I was a boy of fourteen.

~Norman Wisdom

My only phobia is untidiness. My hair has to be neatly kept; my shoes are always clean. Everything has to be in a straight line, in its place.

~Norman Wisdom

There are people who like just ordinary comedy fun, and making mistakes - which I do easily - and then there are people who like the falling over.

~Norman Wisdom

I can never tell a joke, I've always found it easier to just fall over.

~Norman Wisdom

I've an idea for doing a Situation Comedy myself but its always difficult to get people to listen to you because they like to put their own ideas forward.

~Norman Wisdom

I was in the band as a boy and was taught music and learned to compose.

~Norman Wisdom

I've always had a sense of humour, and I still do, so I just want to go on performing as long as I can. It's as simple as that.

~Norman Wisdom

I do play drums when I'm on tour.

~Norman Wisdom

It was smashing working with Jerry Desmonde, he was a very nice chap.
