Prayer and helplessness are inseparable. Only he who is helpless can truly pray. Your helplessness is your best. prayer.

~Ole Hallesby

To pray is nothing more involved than to open the door, giving Jesus access to our needs and permitting Him to exercise His own power in dealing with them.

~Ole Hallesby

Prayer is the conduit through which power from heaven is brought to earth.

~Ole Hallesby

Only he who is helpless can truly pray.

~Ole Hallesby

Be sure to remember that nothing in your daily life is so insignificant and so inconsequential that the Lord will not help you by answering your prayer.

~Ole Hallesby

Helplessness is your best prayer. It calls from your heart to the heart of God with greater effect than all your uttered pleas.

~Ole Hallesby

The more helpless you are, the better you are fitted to pray, and the more answers to prayer you will experience.

~Ole Hallesby

My praying friend, continue to make known your desires to God in all things. ... Let Him decide whether you are to receive what you ask for or not.

~Ole Hallesby

We need to learn to know Him so well that we feel safe when we have left our difficulties with Him. To know in that way is a prerequisite of all true prayer.

~Ole Hallesby

It is only when we pray for something according to the will of God that we have the promise of being heard and answered.

~Ole Hallesby

Prayer is something deeper than words. It is present in the soul before it has been formulated in words. And it abides in the soul after the last words of prayer have passed over our lips.

~Ole Hallesby

Helplessness is the real secret and the impelling power of prayer.

~Ole Hallesby

The secret prayer chamber is a bloody battleground. Here violent and decisive battles are fought out. Here the fate of souls for time and eternity is determined, in quietude and solitude.

~Ole Hallesby

Pray for whatsoever you will. In the name of Jesus you have permission, not only to stand in the presence of God, but also to pray for everything you need.

~Ole Hallesby

Prayer is a condition of mind, an attitude of heart, which God recognizes as prayer whether it manifests itself in quiet thinking, in sighing or in audible words.

~Ole Hallesby

Helplessness becomes prayer the moment that you go to Jesus and speak candidly and confidently with him about your needs. This is to believe.

~Ole Hallesby

By prayer we couple the powers of Heaven to our helplessness, the powers which can capture strongholds and make the impossible, possible.

~Ole Hallesby

To pray is to let Jesus come into our hearts.

~Ole Hallesby

Without faith there can be no prayer, no matter how great our helplessness may be. Helplessness united with faith produces prayer.

~Ole Hallesby

When we go to our meeting with God, we should go like a patient to his doctor, first to be thoroughly examined and afterwards to be treated for our ailment. Then something will happen when you pray.

~Ole Hallesby

Praise lies upon a higher plane than thanksgiving. When I give thanks, my thoughts still circle about myself to some extent. But in praise my soul ascends to self-forgetting adoration.

~Ole Hallesby

If God does not give you something you ask for, wait on Him. He will speak with you tenderly and sympathetically about the matter until you yourself understand that He cannot grant your prayer.

~Ole Hallesby

The quiet hour of prayer is one of the most favorable opportunities

~Ole Hallesby

To pray is to open the door unto Jesus and admit Him into your distress. Your helplessness is the very thing which opens wide the door unto Him and gives Him access to all your needs.

~Ole Hallesby

To pray is to let Jesus come into our hearts. It is not our prayer which moves the Lord Jesus. It is Jesus who moves us to pray.

~Ole Hallesby

Prayer is such a great effort to most of us because we do not pray right.

~Ole Hallesby

Prayer is the risen Jesus coming in with His resurrection power, given free rein in our lives, and then using His authority to enter any situation and change things.

~Ole Hallesby

We should not be afraid, when praying to God, to give expression to a definite desire, even though we are in doubt at the time we are praying whether it is really the right thing to pray for or not.
