I was shocked and saddened to learn of the passing of my sister, Joan Fontaine ... and I appreciate the many kind expressions of sympathy that we have received.

~Olivia de Havilland

One must take what comes, with laughter.

~Olivia de Havilland

It's hard to keep on being civil when they ask you such annoying questions.

~Olivia de Havilland

Famous people feel that they must perpetually be on the crest of the wave, not realising that it is against all the rules of life. You can't be on top all the time, it isn't natural.

~Olivia de Havilland

My sister has decided to become an actress too. It has ruined the close-knittedness of our family life.

~Olivia de Havilland

I don't need a fantasy life as once I did. That is the life of the imagination that I had a great need for. Films were the perfect means for satisfying that need.

~Olivia de Havilland

I read the Scriptures at the American Cathedral on Christmas and Easter; that's it. It's a task I love.

~Olivia de Havilland

The TV business is soul-crushing, talent-destroying and human being-destroying.

~Olivia de Havilland

I was just a mini-star when we did 'Gone With the Wind.'

~Olivia de Havilland

Of course we fight. What sisters don't battle?

~Olivia de Havilland

I was quite thin, and I didn't have to worry until I had my appendix out and a mysterious metabolic change occurred.

~Olivia de Havilland

I'm all for typewriters, with instant carbon copies, and seeing films in cinemas.

~Olivia de Havilland

I wanted to be what my high-school civics and history teacher thought of as a good American. That automatically involved taking an interest in government.

~Olivia de Havilland

I don't feel the cold. It's my British blood!

~Olivia de Havilland

There certainly is such a thing as screen chemistry, although I don't believe you find it frequently.
