Once I took a bus from my home in Maryland to Philadelphia to live on the streets with some musicians for a few weeks, and then my parents sent me to boarding school at Andover to shape me up.

~Olivia Wilde

Believe it or not, I'm a big fan of patchouli oil. I know it's not a universally liked fragrance. I usually combine it with other essential oils - I have many mixtures I like.

~Olivia Wilde

I think it's very healthy to spend time alone. You need to know how to be alone and not be defined by another person.

~Olivia Wilde

We fall in love with one version of someone and we expect them to stay that way, but they never do.

~Olivia Wilde

I'm a natural blonde, but I feel like a brunette.

~Olivia Wilde

In a thousand years, archeologists will dig up tanning beds and think we fried people as punishment.

~Olivia Wilde

I'm a natural blonde, but I feel like a brunette. I feel like people treat me now how I should be treated. People used to be shocked, when I was blond, that I wasn't stupid.

~Olivia Wilde

We have sex like Kenyan marathon runners.

~Olivia Wilde

Enjoy the pregnancy, not racing ahead and relishing the moment. I think people see pregnancy as something to get over with, but every stage of becoming a mother is really special.

~Olivia Wilde

I am so saddened and grossed out by young women who look like creepy, old aliens because of their new Barbie noses and lips. Is that a smile or a grimace?

~Olivia Wilde

We need to remind ourselves of the beauty of human connection and of nature and pull ourselves out of devices for a moment and appreciate what it is just to be human beings.

~Olivia Wilde

I love eye makeup. I really like doing a cat eye, playing with liquid liners and different colors of liners, like emerald and deep blues, combining them with black.

~Olivia Wilde

Anything that becomes an obstacle in life is only an opportunity to learn and it's the same in any profession I think.

~Olivia Wilde

But even if I'm left high and dry at the end of this wild journey, just taking it is a great feeling.

~Olivia Wilde

In my work in Haiti, I've seen the hugely positive effects that happen when people come together to build something in the middle of the most desperate situations.

~Olivia Wilde

Inspiration is the key to everything.

~Olivia Wilde

Weakness is something we don't like to admit we have. We hold it against people, until we experience it, and then we feel more compassion for it.

~Olivia Wilde

I think my confidence has developed over the years, in terms of the speed at which I will reveal how collaborative I want to be.

~Olivia Wilde

I love the eyebrow pencils. I do my brows every day. I won't leave my house without my brows! My beauty disaster from childhood was trying to look like Kate Moss and plucking all my brows off.

~Olivia Wilde

Only the really young are fearless, have the optimism, the romanticism to take unimaginable risks.

~Olivia Wilde

I got an internship with the casting director of The Girl Next Door. I would hold the clipboard and help them in their casting sessions and get them lunch.

~Olivia Wilde

A real feminist doesn't apologize for her beauty. You can be a sexy, beautiful woman and be the smartest person in the room.

~Olivia Wilde

I have very high standards for every part of life - my work, my relationships, food, love. I can't just pretend.

~Olivia Wilde

The amazing thing about becoming a parent is that you will never again be your own first priority.

~Olivia Wilde

Once, in Australia, I ate 33 pancakes in 20 minutes, and I only did it because they said a girl could never enter the competition.

~Olivia Wilde

Beyond my desire to boycott the torture factories, I am also way happier when I eat a plant-based diet, and I feel about a thousand times more energetic.

~Olivia Wilde

I was a handful growing up.

~Olivia Wilde

In the next election, can we vote to ban those ribbon things that kind of keep clothing on hangers but really just hang out of your armpits?

~Olivia Wilde

I think what ruins relationships and causes most fights is insecurity.

~Olivia Wilde

I'm now convinced that I'm a doctor. I mean, if someone says they have a pain, I'm like, 'Well, that's your spleen.'

~Olivia Wilde

I loved being pregnant. I felt unapologetically curvy, sexy, and intensely feminine. After giving birth I joined the ranks of millions of new mothers when I moaned, 'Why do I still look pregnant?'

~Olivia Wilde

If a woman feels anchored to a man's plans, she may start to resent him for the fun she's worried she's missing.

~Olivia Wilde

It seems like a dangerous concept to have someone who's just your drinking buddy. Someone you have nothing in common with, if you're sober, is probably not a good, healthy friendship.

~Olivia Wilde

If I could play drums like Patrick Carney or Taylor Hawkins, I'd be a really happy person.

Many casting directors won't hire aspiring actors because you might be burning some chick's headshot under the table so she doesn't get the part.

~Olivia Wilde

I was a tomboy and I didn't have a bunch of brothers but I always wanted them and so I sort of adopted a few of my great friends to be my brother.

~Olivia Wilde

So are all the kids on the East Coast repeating school next year? Get ready to see a lot of hairy eighth graders. Storm brain drain.

~Olivia Wilde

I love kids with a passion I usually reserve for hot cheese, miniature chairs, and Prince concerts, but I feel no stress to reproduce simply because of a fear of withering eggs.

~Olivia Wilde

My parents said marrying was an optimistic thing to do in pessimistic times.

~Olivia Wilde

My dad is Irish. I spent my childhood going back and forth between Ireland and America.

~Olivia Wilde

Let's redefine scandal. Scandal is not who's dating who. Scandal is 1.2 million people living in tents in Haiti.

~Olivia Wilde

When I kiss a girl for a part, people think it's sexy. But if two guys kiss, suddenly there's a backlash. It's a double standard.

~Olivia Wilde

As a woman who works in a male-dominated business - Hollywood, definitely, being one of them - I instinctually knew what that is like. You have to be strong and take care of yourself.

~Olivia Wilde

I think that women are more sensitive to emotional infidelity than men. I think men are more scared of physical infidelity.

~Olivia Wilde

Do some yoga. I never feel more beautiful than after I've really spent some time breathing.

~Olivia Wilde

I trust work, directors - I don't live in fear. All good experiences have come from trusting the universe. There is no other way to live or love. Otherwise, you create your own prison.

~Olivia Wilde

People assume actresses are afraid to get older; the truth is the roles get a whole lot more compelling once you're too old to play dumb.

~Olivia Wilde

Documentaries are a powerful and effective way of bridging the gap between worlds, breaking through to new audiences that wouldn't otherwise be engaged - in essence, not preaching to the choir.

~Olivia Wilde

I admire women who can be feminists and fight for women's rights, who believe in our powers as individuals and yet not apologize for beauty.

~Olivia Wilde

It's so important to have that independence. You know it yourself: Everyone needs evenings of their own.

~Olivia Wilde

In fact, I'm softer than I've ever been, including that unfortunate semester in high school when I simultaneously discovered Krispy Kreme and pot.

~Olivia Wilde

If I have to draw attention away from some hormone-induced acne on my chin, I put on a lot of mascara.

~Olivia Wilde

I'm pretty low-key; you'll often find me in jeans, a T-shirt and sweatshirt.

~Olivia Wilde

I do not tweeze my eyebrows. I've been letting them grow out for years. I try to fill them in wherever nature has abandoned me.

~Olivia Wilde

People think that young people don't care about things, but I think they do care; they just aren't super interested in conforming to what older people think are the right way to do things.

~Olivia Wilde
