Was I a criminal? No. I was a good member of society. Only my society and the one making the laws are different.

~Owsley Stanley

I think that there are a few people that are power manipulators that have gotten control of things.

~Owsley Stanley

The dolphins and whales have a brain that is actually bigger in proportion to their size than we do. They are very complex. They are thinkers.

~Owsley Stanley

I don't like sitting at a keyboard.

~Owsley Stanley

The faster you can sample sound when you are digitizing it, the higher the frequency, the less phase ambiguity at the higher frequencies.

~Owsley Stanley

Who knows for sure how complex or how uncomplex the ancient people's lives were.

~Owsley Stanley

Your body gets old but your mind can always accept that.

~Owsley Stanley

How did the dolphins and whales get such big brains? They obviously don't need such big brains to catch fish.

~Owsley Stanley

Virtual reality might be able to give you a way of doing hands-on to construct ideas in a computer.

~Owsley Stanley

I have always wanted some way that you could make a surface in a computer, like you pick up a piece of clay and make sculpture.
