I really don't care what the other team thinks. I don't care what their fans think. If they hate me, great. Hate me. We'll just keep winning, I'll keep scoring and we'll move on.

~P. K. Subban

Hockey taught me to challenge myself and be the best I can be on and off the ice.

~P. K. Subban

I try to hold it in until I get on the ice, then in front of the net sometimes I'll pass gas.

~P. K. Subban

I can't wait for the crowd, the noise, the energy in the building. I can't wait to take that all away from them.

~P. K. Subban

Hockey is an amazing sport and it has definitely had a positive impact on my life. But my dad always said school comes first, and if I didn't do well in school I didn't get to play hockey.

~P. K. Subban

Growing up, it was tough to balance, but looking back I appreciate my parents' efforts to make sure I was well-rounded.

~P. K. Subban

Playing the sport has taught me about teamwork and how to be a good team player, social skills and most importantly, dedication.

~P. K. Subban

We [the Subban brothers] are role models to a lot of kids, not just black kids, but all kids out there and that's what we want to be known for.

~P. K. Subban

I'm the oldest, I have the most experience, and I'm the best looking [betwin brothers]. I've been told that on numerous occasions.

~P. K. Subban

A huge part of my passion for the sport comes from being Canadian and growing up watching Hockey Night in Canada on CBC with my parents and siblings.

~P. K. Subban

My dad has always said to me, "where there is a will there is a way" and this is the type of dedication hockey has taught me. Being dedicated to this sport [hockey] has been my will to play.

~P. K. Subban

I think it's just having the support of our parents. Knowing that they're going to keep you on the right path and guide you.

~P. K. Subban

I instantly connected with the sport and I have fond memories of growing up on my skating rink that my dad made for us in our backyard.

~P. K. Subban

I mean the NHL never called me and wanted me to show up at the draft.

~P. K. Subban

[Magic] Johnson is seriously remarkable, in terms of what he has accomplished in his profession and outside of his profession as well.

~P. K. Subban

For us [hockey] is an opportunity, myself and my brothers have an opportunity to do something special.

~P. K. Subban

I got the experience, I got the strength, I got the talent, I got the famous jump hook. That's my move.

~P. K. Subban

Silence is golden! [Malcolm Subban] knows not to talk too much smack cause you don't want to give me that incentive right?

~P. K. Subban

[Malcolm Subban] is probably winning the battle cause we had a couple skates together and I didn't score too much on him. So I guess I'll say that I'm waiting for the game to score on him.

~P. K. Subban

I like my R&B, my hip-hop. But I'm old school, I don't like a lot of new stuff. Though I do like a little bit of Meek Mill. He kind of sounds angry when he's rapping so I like that part of the game.
