When I took my first job, I was among only a handful of women. It was isolating at times. My love for technology kept me going, and I got to where I am today driven by my passion and self confidence.

~Padmasree Warrior

Tech is all about building human connections.

~Padmasree Warrior

If I had to pick three of my favorite magazines, they would be 'Fast Company', 'Silicon India', and 'Smithsonian.'

~Padmasree Warrior

Today, we need to listen more carefully. I read what people say on Twitter, my friends on Path, in addition to formal media. I look for patterns, and then I post questions back to my network.

~Padmasree Warrior

Most emerging markets are skipping web based technology and go straight to mobile

~Padmasree Warrior

It makes me so much calmer when I'm responding to e-mails later.

~Padmasree Warrior

When I present or speak, I write the slides myself. And regarding time, I would like to be able to publish more than I do.

~Padmasree Warrior

I'm thrilled to be joining Gap Inc., a company that understands the importance of integrating technology and retail in ways that improve the lives of its customers.
