Black eyeliner says 'You've been through stuff, you know things'.

~Parker Posey

I watch soap operas. I bake brownies. Normalcy is coursing through my veins.

~Parker Posey

I like soap opera acting. If it's done really well, there's nothing better. It's old school. It's like what those melodramas in the '30s and '40s were like

~Parker Posey

But it's fun to be something, have that, and you don't have to be real. It's like, comedians. They go on and they're doing all these jokes. I would be like that if I were more awake

~Parker Posey

I would like a nice, powerful, mind-altering substance. Preferably one that will make my unborn children grow gills.

~Parker Posey

I haven't seen a bear in person. I've seen deer. I have lots of woodchucks on my property. And bluebirds. Foxes.

~Parker Posey

An actor's career relies on a lot of luck. Being in the right place at the right time.

~Parker Posey

In the '90s, indie movies could get financing, because financiers gave money straight to directors... Now it's a different system. Indie movies got co-opted by the studio system.

~Parker Posey

My dad recently reminded me that my grandfather's cousin was Lefty Frizzell.

~Parker Posey

You're talking to someone, to a reader, and you get to express in the way you want to. And you get to play with it. It's kind of like acting, but it's on paper.

~Parker Posey

I don't have a publisher yet, so I'm not in the process of that next stage and I don't know what that's going to look like. So I feel like I finished stage one [with my book].

~Parker Posey

It's overshadowed, the art. We're in a really argumentative, black-and-white-thinking culture right now. There's not a lot of time to take things in.

~Parker Posey

It felt really good to kind of find my voice and say stuff, and to be funny, hopefully.

~Parker Posey

I've done a lot of crafts in my day. I learned how to do pottery, yoga... and I just wanted to share and talk and write.

~Parker Posey

You know, it's a really adult thing, for some people, to choose to not be with the one that you love.

~Parker Posey

Time is weird in your twenties. It's intense, and you feel like it's running out. But you'll get to thirty and see you are still here on the planet.

~Parker Posey

I've gotten to portray things in [Christopher Guest's] movies that I wouldn't have in others.

~Parker Posey

I liked being able to portray a woman at this particular age and at this point in her life.

~Parker Posey

I utilize myself a lot more fully now. You get older so you have a lot more experience.

~Parker Posey

I'm the character actor in Hollywood movies, the girl who has to be annoying so the guy can go to the other girl.

~Parker Posey

I don't Twitter, although sometimes I think that I should.

~Parker Posey

I'm trying to work in studio movies, but they won't hire me.

~Parker Posey

I usually play character parts in Hollywood films.

~Parker Posey

My grandmother is this amazingly theatrical woman. She acted like a movie star, as far as looks and attitude, kind of like Susan Hayward.

~Parker Posey

I'm having too good of a time.

~Parker Posey

My first lead role was probably 'Party Girl' in 1994.

~Parker Posey

I like bears. I like bear people. I like bear-type men.

~Parker Posey

I wouldn't say I was a queen. Maybe a little elf

~Parker Posey

I think movies are now like going to a museum and seeing the latest exhibit - people just aren't going. It really is a dying art form. It feels frustrating.

~Parker Posey

I sold my apartment this year. It's like, Wow, this is where the arts are now.

~Parker Posey

I don't know what's going on with new media and digital stuff. It's all changing.

~Parker Posey

Sometimes you're not in the best environment. Sometimes you're not speaking the same language and it's not a good place to work. It's a lot to give, actually. And for not a lot of money.

~Parker Posey

As an actor in these movies you get to fill up something so much, to its capacity, and once you get there you're like a horse running onto the racetrack.

~Parker Posey

Pop songs now, they're about the aftermath of love.

~Parker Posey

I don't want to sound like too much of a drama queen! But I'm not going to tell you, 'Oh, it's just so much fun.' It's work [working on film].

~Parker Posey

People are like, 'Was it fun? Did you eat lots of cake?'

~Parker Posey

Early on it was much easier to play leads, but now independent movies are being co-opted by the studio system, and they want bigger names to guarantee more audience and more numbers.

~Parker Posey

I think Jesse Eisenberg is such a great writer. He was a great director and really tough.
