I come from a Christian faith. I am not going to give you insight into my particular beliefs.

~Patricia Ireland

I don't think you lead by pessimism and cynicism. I think you lead by optimism and enthusiasm and energy.

~Patricia Ireland

Stewardesses are still paid so little that in many cases, new hires qualify for food stamps.

~Patricia Ireland

Advice and consent does not mean rubber stamp in the Senate.

~Patricia Ireland

I want to organize so that women see ourselves as people who are entitled to power, entitled to leadership.

~Patricia Ireland

I want to reach young women and to get them involved in the mission of the YWCA, economic empowerment of women and girls, and ending racism.

~Patricia Ireland

Violence may be a good focus to organize around, but we have to look at women's lives in our entirety.

~Patricia Ireland

The opposition has moved from a blaming the victim to blaming the victim's advocate's statistics. Irrespective of what the numbers are, it's far too many.

~Patricia Ireland

More than 10,000 ballots in Miami-Dade County have been rejected by some machine without any opportunity for a human being to take a look. That is just not right.

~Patricia Ireland

In any grass-roots campaign, building an ongoing base of support is as important as winning the ultimate goal.

~Patricia Ireland

Most of us see Justice O'Connor as something of an icon, although we do not agree with all of her decisions.

~Patricia Ireland

Some campaigns are not worth waging if you can't win; others have to be fought on grounds of principle regardless of the chances for success.

~Patricia Ireland

There are a lot of people who worked extremely hard in the election who are still organized who know how to do door to door and phone canvassing, who know how to raise money.

~Patricia Ireland

And of course we are familiar with the English common law rule of thumb that said a man could in fact use a stick no bigger than his thumb to discipline his wife and family.

~Patricia Ireland

Extremely strong, effective, tenacious, and powerful political networks can be built when you fight losing battles as well as when you win.

~Patricia Ireland

I just have that sense this is the reason we got Sandra Day O'Connor on the Court in the first place is because Ronald Reagan was running for President.

~Patricia Ireland

Some of those men in power, we just have to change their faces because we're not going to change their minds.

~Patricia Ireland

The way to be a man if you're a little boy is to be willing to throw your weight around.

~Patricia Ireland

All of us knew he was a snake when we voted for him

~Patricia Ireland

the two major parties too often present us with a choice of the evil of two lessers.

~Patricia Ireland

Is a woman raped every three minutes or every six minutes? It is far too much, whatever it is.

~Patricia Ireland

Jesus never said anything about homosexuality.
