Actors are always the pawns. They're the last ones in the food chain.

~Patricia Mauceri

It's very hard to find good and wholesome, edifying and challenging writing for the students to perform. In my classroom I strive to do that as best as I can.

~Patricia Mauceri

I gave my heart to Jesus. I accepted him as my Lord and Savior, started reading the Bible, started going to a church (and) started a relationship with Jesus.

~Patricia Mauceri

In grammar school, I went to eight o'clock mass pretty much like four days a week.

~Patricia Mauceri

When my marriage fell apart I started reevaluating my life and I started to call on the Lord.

~Patricia Mauceri

I got on the TV show at 40 and that is something very rare. So, I know that God gave me that role (on) One Life to Live - the role of Carlotta, the role of a mom.

~Patricia Mauceri

I started my career off replacing Rita Moreno in a Broadway show.
