The question was asked, how can you be a mother and a congresswoman? I said, I have a brain, I have a uterus and they both work.

~Patricia Schroeder

I have a brain and a uterus, and I use both.

~Patricia Schroeder

The Pledge of Allegiance says "...with liberty and justice for all." What part of "all" don't you understand?

~Patricia Schroeder

You can't wring your hands and roll up your sleeves at the same time.

~Patricia Schroeder

You measure a government by how few people need help.

~Patricia Schroeder

When people ask me why I am running as a woman, I always answer, 'What choice do I have?'

~Patricia Schroeder

Many women have more power than they recognize, and they're very hesitant to use it, for they fear they won't be loved.

~Patricia Schroeder

Dan Quayle thinks Roe v. Wade is two ways to cross the Potomac.

~Patricia Schroeder

books are brain food. If every American would purchase the equivalent of his weight in books each year, this country would be a different place.

~Patricia Schroeder

The mood of the 80s - Get what you can, can what you get, and sit on the can.

~Patricia Schroeder

Do I have an option? when asked by the press if she was "running as a woman."

~Patricia Schroeder

When men talk about defense, they always claim to be protecting women and children, but they never ask the women and children what they think.

~Patricia Schroeder

Nobody ever says to men, how can you be a Congressman and a father.

~Patricia Schroeder

Government has become a machine that runs only when gold coins are inserted.

~Patricia Schroeder

The genius of the Republicans has been how they figured out how to so polarize the middle class that we vote against our own best interests.

~Patricia Schroeder

It's really funny if two women stand on the House floor. There are usually at least two men who go by and say, 'What is this, a coup?' They're almost afraid to see us in public together.

~Patricia Schroeder

I had always believed government was not a fungus: It could survive in sunshine.

~Patricia Schroeder

I always preferred having wings to having things.

~Patricia Schroeder

When it comes to college education, American families are paying more and getting less.

~Patricia Schroeder

Our tax code encourages people to raise thoroughbred horses, not children.

~Patricia Schroeder

Traditional copyright has been that you can't make a full copy of somebody's work without their permission.

~Patricia Schroeder

If the search engines don't respect the creators, there won't be anything to search in the future because creators have to make a living too.

~Patricia Schroeder

I have a brain, I have a uterus, and they both work.

~Patricia Schroeder

The presidency has become a series of visuals I don't know how a woman fits into.

~Patricia Schroeder

Washington is awash in post-war testosterone.

~Patricia Schroeder

If you want to change the world, you change the world of a child.

~Patricia Schroeder

Japan redefined world power. They showed you could become a world power without having a military.

~Patricia Schroeder

I was and am, like many women, both pro-life and pro-choice.

~Patricia Schroeder

I think we're much more comfortable with women as policy makers. We're not there yet, but the comfort zone is much wider than it was when I came.

~Patricia Schroeder

The paranoid fear of government is an extremist position, and every one of us ought to say that

~Patricia Schroeder

He has denied what has happened. His sworn statements have denied what has happened.

~Patricia Schroeder

We have to tell the American public that they're missing the boat, that they have to get into writing and reading. Not only that, but books won't crash in the year 2000.
