When you win, say nothing. When you lose, say less.

~Paul Brown

Leave as little to chance as possible. Preparation is the key to success.

~Paul Brown

The key to winning is poise under stress.

~Paul Brown

The only thing that counts is your dedication to the game. You run on your own fuel; it comes from within you.

~Paul Brown

You can learn a line from a win and a book from a defeat.

~Paul Brown

I enjoy winning and very much dislike losing- but I did not allow either of them to obsess me. I was a silent loser, believing that if you won you said little, and if you lost you said even less

~Paul Brown

A winner never whines.

~Paul Brown

Football is a game of errors. The team that makes the fewest errors in a game usually wins.

~Paul Brown

I can't stand it when a player whines to me or his teammates or his wife or the writers or anyone else. A whiner is almost always wrong. A winner never whines.

~Paul Brown

You just never know what's around the next corner in life or business or anything.

~Paul Brown

If you think you have a good idea, get into the marketplace as quickly as you can, using as little money as possible, and see what happens.

~Paul Brown

The test of a quarterback is where his team finishes.

~Paul Brown

Coaches who scrimmage all the time don't know what to practice.

~Paul Brown

What we have currently available is what we have available.

~Paul Brown

We don't have mad cow disease. We probably never will have mad cow disease, and therefore, it's a non-problem in the United States.

~Paul Brown

I'm not a big TV watcher, but I know that Discovery is a teaching network. And they've been so awesome to me, I love those people.

~Paul Brown

Feathered with hoarfrost, skeletal trees loom closer; fog shrouded arches.

~Paul Brown

My theory with the auctions has been to try to make them like a party, like a social event. If people are having a good time, talking with their friends, they're much more likely to bid.
