We will have a border that is open for business, open for tourism, open for legitimate travelers; but that is closed to terrorists and drug pushers and smugglers and others who seek to break the law.

~Paul Cellucci

This ability to have reliable sources of energy and a reliable transmission of energy here in North America is critical for both of us and for Mexico as we want to keep our economies growing.

~Paul Cellucci

The agreement to place the binational planning group at our new Northern Command was also signed in December.

~Paul Cellucci

We are very grateful for what the Ontario provincial government is doing, and for cooperation from provincial and local police forces all across Canada.

~Paul Cellucci

Much has been accomplished during the last year in the campaign against terrorism. This struggle will require vigilance, perseverance and sacrifice for many years to come.

~Paul Cellucci

Yet there is disappointment in Washington and in the United States that Canada is not supporting us fully.

~Paul Cellucci
